

HEALTH, SAFETY AND ENVIRONMENTAL POLICY

Transwater is committed to cultivate and embed Occupational Health, Safety and Environment best practices in all its business activities.

Lead by the top management, Transwater employer and employees together with our business partners will strive to adopt and implement continual monitoring and improvement of Occupational Health, Safety and Environment to;

- Comply and fulfill all Health, Safety and Environmental compliance obligations wherever its operate;
- Promote & provide a system in preventing Safety injury, Ill health and Environmental impact at the workplace;
- Protect the environment, including managing pollution prevention, and other specific commitment(s) relevant to the context of the organization;
- Build and practice an effective continual improvement of the Health, Safety and Environmental management system.

Transwater requires all its employees, contractors and others to strictly adhere to this policy at all times. Transwater is committed to practice this policy in our business activity as well as during project execution in the best interest of our employees and stakeholders.

Tan U-Jiun Abdullah
Executive Director

2nd MAY 2016